Ghorepani Poon Hill Trek

Difficulty	Duration	Region	Max. Altitude	Type	Group Size	Accommodation
Easy	13 Days	Annapurna	2860m	Trekking	2-14 pax	Tea House and Hotel

Overview

For those who have limited time in Nepal but want to get to the mountains and experience the unique Nepalese culture, the Ghorepani Poon Hill trek is highly recommended.

This trek is essentially a microcosm of what a longer Nepalese mountain trek is like. You'll pass through picturesque villages, deep jungles and over rivers, and many uphill before ultimately ending up at altitude (3,200m), with your head amongst the tallest mountains in the world.

The highest point of this trek, Poon Hill offers uninterrupted, panoramic views of some of the majestic Himalayan mountains including Dhaulagiri, Nilgiri, Machhapuchre, Annapurna Massif and Lamjung. You don't want to miss the splendid sunrise from the viewpoint of Poon Hill. The climb up to the viewpoint from Ghorepani is laborious but it is worth it for the magical views you see from up top. As the sun rises, a wide panorama that stretches from Mt. Dhaulagiri (8167m) to Mt. Manaslu (8156m) with the Annapurna range and Mt. Machhapuchre (6993m) in between is seen. The rising sun will warm your body whereas the landscape will warm your soul.

The Ghandruk-Ghorepani trek is one of the short treks in the Annapurnas but it is definitely leave you mesmerized with all the experiences in between. You'll follow ancient trails that connect local communities, pass through blooming rhododendron forests and rice paddies, and enjoy views of snow-covered mountains.

Itinerary

Days 1: Arrival in Kathmandu

On your arrival in Kathmandu, Tribhuvan International Airport, our representative will welcome you & drive you to the hotel. It's a free day/evening. You can walk around Thamel for shopping.

Days 2: Sightseeing around Kathmandu

Kathmandu is the historical and cultural heart of Nepal and has been a popular destination for tourists ever since Nepal opened its doors to visitors. The city presents a wonderful mix of Hinduism, Tibetan Buddhism and Western influence. There will be a guided tour to the largest Buddhist stupa in Nepal Boudhanath and after that to the most popular Hindu shrine dedicated to Lord Shiva- Pashupatinath.
